In the Proceedings 1st read above, the Transport Commissioner has imposed the punishment of withholding of two increments with cumulative effect against Sri M.G. Chakravarthi Goud, former Asst. 2. Against the said proceedings, Sri M.G. Chakravarthi Goud through the representation 2nd read above has filed an appeal before the Government stating that the inquiry officer has not recorded the evidence of the private person who was cited as witness-3 nor given him opportunity to cross examine him, which is the vital witness to prove the charge; that the statement of the said private person was taken behind his back, that the testimony which is very doubtful when it is not attested by the Prosecution Witnesses and the other mediators etc; that the Inquiring Authority mainly depended on the principles of preponderance of possibility in arriving at the findings that the charge is proved than the material available on record and therefore requested the appellate authority to consider his appeal and set aside the punishment imposed in the Proceedings 1st read above in the interest of justice.

4. Government after careful examination of the matter, have observed that the statement said to be given by the private person does not contain the signatures of mediators and the authenticity of the signature of the said person was also not examined and the statement does not contain when it was recorded ie. date and time and in whose presence it was also not recorded and therefore decided to allow the appeal and to set aside the punishment issued in the proceedings 1st read above.
